Online Sales of Books and Other Items

We are in the process of installing new software which will streamline and improve the shopping experience of those purchasing National Alliance and National Vanguard books, CDs, and other items — and we will soon be greatly expanding the number of items we offer to the public online. Thanks to the donors and volunteers who have made these improvements possible. Keep watching <http://natall.com> for a new “store” link coming soon.

More Progress Made Fighting Book Pirates

We continue to make headway in dealing with those who have been selling unauthorized versions of our books, some of them for years.

Last month when someone would search Amazon.com for Dr. Pierce’s novel, The Turner Diaries, more than four pages of the pirated Barricade Books edition would come up for him to choose from, while no legitimate National Vanguard Books (NVB) editions would appear. When we first tried listing our authorized version, we were selling practically no books through Amazon. The Jews at Barricade, and those purchasing from them wholesale, were selling hundreds of their version of The Turner Diaries — the version that features the legend “THIS BOOK CONTAINS RACIST PROPAGANDA” in large type on its cover, and which includes “The Turner Diaries is a dreadful book... a bigoted book... full of hate” in the sanctimonious publisher’s introduction.

This month, however, all of Barricade’s pirated editions have been removed from Amazon for copyright infringement, and our legitimate version of The Turner Diaries is the only one available. And it is selling much better now, along with our other titles. Additionally, with the addition of the shopping cart feature on our natall.com Web site we can now sell directly to the public without going through outfits like Amazon, who give us good exposure but absorb some of our profits. This is a big step forward for our Alliance.

Last month we also announced our arrangement with Lulu.com to sell Dr. Pierce’s final book, Who We Are. So far this month, since announcing that partnership, a slow but increasing stream of copies of Who We Are have been sold — not many, but more than in the previous five years combined. Please continue to spread the link for Who We Are to as many people as you can:

Beekeeping for food, fun and profit — a milepost on our West Virginia community's journey toward self-sufficiency

Report from The Land

April has been a busy month on The Land. Spring is upon us and new life is exploding all around. We got an early start this year by planting around 150 seedlings for this year's garden — unfortunately our free-range chickens found those. But fortunately we had only planted some of our seeds so we started again, this time in a chicken-proof area.

Our beekeeper registered our hives with the West Virginia Department of Agriculture, as required, and our bees have made it through their first winter in good health. The Alliance's bee colony has outgrown its first hive and are ready to split, so the Chairman has sent money to add another apiary before our bees split naturally and half of them buzz off, looking for a new home. With the new hive we double our honey harvest later this year.

Our limited timbering operation has made slow but steady progress. The timber crew usually consists of myself, a helper, our chain saw, our tractor, some chains and cables, and lots of sweat. Despite April showers and unusually muddy conditions, this month we have harvested and delivered nearly 12,000 board feet to the mill. Timber has been a staple industry in Pocahontas County since the 18th century, but it wasn't until 1899 that the railroad was able to penetrate this vast mountain wilderness to get timber to outside markets.

Much of my time lately has been spent in the woods here on The Land, but Laura Lee and I enjoy hiking the many public lands in the area, and there are lots of great trails nearby. We recently hiked the High Rock Trail. This is a US Forest Service trail on the Highland Scenic Highway through the Monongahela National Forest, just a couple miles above Mill Point, near our campus location. High Rock can be seen from the Mill Point intersection as well as from several places on The Land. That hiking trail is roughly a four-mile round trip. The trail ended along a cliff top that looks out over the entire valley and beyond, a small rock island in a vast ocean of green. Our nearby West Virginia Route 150 is like a shorter version of the popular Blue Ridge Parkway: no gas stations or commercial businesses, few homes, and not much vehicular traffic because the speed limit is 45 mph.

Looking out from the National Alliance foothold here, over the vast Allegheny mountains of Appalachia — one of the oldest mountain ranges on the planet — and living so deep in that unspoiled wilderness, is to Alliance-builders today as it must have been for the loggers of 1899 when the first train made its way into this area: a great place from which to build and grow. Sometimes the sheer scope of our task may seem overwhelming, even impossible. This can lead many to throw their hands up and surrender — or to turn to a false god like Donald Trump as their only hope. We Alliance members know that it's our world view that is the real hope for our race.

This month we mailed a copy of our gun control tri-fold flier with a topical cover letter and an Alliance business card to selected Federal Firearms License (FFL) holders around the US. Our first 100 mailed packets are a tiny drop of truth in a vast ocean of many more FFL holders, most of whom are White, to whom we plan to reach out. These drops add up. The FFL project is one that any member can get in on with zero personal risk and minimum investment. One drop at a time — one new member at a time — we are building and moving forward. — David Pringle, Chief of Staff, West Virginia campus

Update on Legal Matters

Our Virginia attorney is preparing the amended counterclaim in the McLaughlin matter and will make a motion for a summary judgement. That judgement will be transferred to Piatt County, Illinois, where Plaintiff McLaughlin lived, and died on 22 February. These complicated (and expensive) legal matters take time. We have not bothered Mr. McLaughlin's relatives with this counterclaim issue, allowing them time to grieve. The family is aware of our counterclaim; we are respecting their sorrowful loss, and are "getting our ducks in a row" behind the scene, preparing to deal with the executor or administrator of McLaughlin's estate. We hope to settle amicably, but the National Alliance will be firm in its position that John McLaughlin deliberately damaged our organization with his flagrant breach of fiduciary duties as a former National Alliance director, and the organization must now be awarded damages.

There isn't much to report on the two criminal appeals — one, Chairman Williams', for misdemeanor assault on his accuser, and the other for that same accuser, Garland Corse (John McLaughlin's employee), who is appealing the lower court's order that she return items she stole from Williams and the Alliance. Yet another pre-trial hearing has been scheduled for 24 May in Defendant Corse's appeal at her request — for what, who knows? Hopefully, it can be arranged with the court to hear both appeals at trial on the same day, 1 June. The May BULLETIN may be delivered intentionally a little late next month so the results of those trials can be reported.

Correspondence

Dear Chairman Williams: Thank you for accepting my application for membership into the National Alliance. I realize that I am young [19] and lack skills but I hope to be an active member and prove myself to the organization. I was a member of the alt-right before that term was picked up by the MSM ["mainstream media"], and believe it or not the alt-right was originally sympathetic to National Socialism. The movement was infiltrated by libertarian and conservative Jews such as Milo [Yiannopoulos, a homosexual, demi-Jew, and alt-right figure]. This group was very pro-Trump and largely ignored Trump's Jewish aspects. I realize now that Trump is simply the Pat Buchanan of the modern era as William Pierce described him in his [1996] "Why They Hate Pat Buchanan" American Dissident Voices broadcast. It was through my alt-right association that I made significant discoveries. I read Dr. Pierce's The Turner Diaries for the first time. I discovered great American thinkers like Dr. Pierce and George Lincoln Rockwell, and learned of the National Alliance. Before I applied for membership in the Alliance, before going to bed each night I would listen to the ADV Iccast server and the programs of Dr. Pierce, Kevin Strom, and others. They have taught me vital truths that the alt-right did not discuss.

I am a simple man; a minimalist. I don't buy unnecessary material items and avoid getting roped into the modern world. I don't use a cell phone; I send letters. Some of my peers laugh at me for my minimalism and rejection of the modern world, but it is this attitude that I believe will make me a better Alliance member. There is not much about my lifestyle that I need to abandon to be in line with the values and lifestyle of Alliance members. I am finally out of the Jewish education system and am now self-educating myself about the real world! Thank you very much for this opportunity to join something larger than myself: a White Brotherhood, a union against the International Jew, a true nationalistic society. — D.S., Oregon

National Alliance: There are so many “educational” TV programs about the “Holocaust” every April that I thought April was Holocaust month. On April 27, President Trump stated to a group of Jews gathered to “remember the Holocaust” in the Capitol Rotunda: “This is my pledge to you: We will confront Anti-Semitism. We will stamp out prejudice. We will condemn hatred. We will bear witness. And we will act. As President of the United States, I will always stand with the Jewish people — and I will always stand with our great friend and partner, the State of Israel.”

What a great Jewish speech writer Trump has. The world would be a far better place if Trump stamped out the lies and prejudice in his own brainwashed head, instead of threatening those who are trying to help people learn the truth about World War II and the Holocaust scam. Trump is as mis-educated and ignorant of the truth as one would expect of a person who has spent his life trying to get rich instead of trying to learn the truth, and who believes the lies that he has been taught ever since he was a child by school teachers, preachers, and the Jews who own the mass media of the countries that people of our pathetic race have made the most powerful in the world.

The Jews seem to be able to lead Trump around like a cow with a ring in its nose. What else can he do? Despite all of his boisterous bluster and threats, an ignorant and confused child like Trump who is surrounded by Jews, even in his own home, must realize that he has gotten himself in way too far over his head to make decisions without their help. Although Trump may think that he is smarter than the rest of us because he is so rich, he is no match for the savage Semites who began doing their best to conquer, enslave, exterminate, and rule our race from behind the scenes thousands of years before they terrorized our ancestors into worshipping a Jew.

How long before we have to put up with laws like those in Germany, where so many honest citizens have been imprisoned for years simply because they bravely and unselfishly said what they sincerely believe in their own hearts about the six million Holocaust industry or World War II, in order to protect innocent and trusting people from being exploited by Jewish liars? David Irving and Ernst Zundel are examples of what Jews, with the help of the corrupt governments of America, Canada, Germany, etc., can do to punish and utterly destroy anyone who tells us what Jews do not want us to hear. How hard will politicians, whom the liars who run our media have brainwashed us into electing, try to protect our Constitutional “rights” and freedoms against the will of Jewish leaders?

The liars who run our media have been trying to get Americans to elect a Jew for President as long as I can remember. I suspect that any Jew who ever does become President of the USA will do everything he can to wipe out as much of our race as he can via wars, etc. Jews elected Obama because they thought he would be their “yes man,” and expected him to comply with Israel’s demands more than he did. Negroes are less easily fooled, and are probably more likely than other Christians to identify with the Palestinian victims of Israel’s aggression.

Trump complains that the mass broadcast media tell lies about him, but doesn’t seem to be trying to do anything to stop the Jews who own it from doing so. Does he know who they are, or dare ask? What good is a democracy if the voters believe the lies of the Jews who own most of it? Would living in America seem less like being imprisoned in a lunatic asylum if so many American children had not been taught the lies that are constantly drummed into their heads every time they turn on a TV, and in the schools and churches that they have been forced to attend?

Israel requires that all Jewish homes be constructed with bomb shelters as protection against fallout in case there ever is a nuclear war. If the world can recover from the nukes that America dropped on Japan, why couldn’t Israel emerge from a worldwide nuclear war as the super power it wants to be? God help humanity if the Jews ever become as powerful and a tenth as successful as they have always dreamed of becoming. They have made steady progress and gained more and more territory for their race for thousands of years, thanks to their ability to divide and conquer our domesticated race, and to herd it about like sheep.

Our race once had enough pride to reproduce itself enough to conquer America and fight two world wars. Over 90% of Americans were White until Jews got the immigration law of 1965 passed. Do so few White women want to have children because they have been taught that our race is evil and that pride is a sin? — P.R., via the whitebiocentrism.com forum

Chairman Williams responds: P.R. occasionally posts to our small Internet forum, but has not joined the National Alliance and so does not receive this monthly BULLETIN. The disgust she expresses here for Donald Trump after his widely-televised speech to Jews in the Capitol Rotunda for their annual Holocaust™ “Days of Remembrance” lovefest rings true to responsible, perceptive thought criminals like us. Unconcerned White people who won’t open their eyes now to what is so obvious to P.R. and to us, need to be exposed to this virtuous dissent. Whites who deny their own race “for fear of the smear,” as Dr. Pierce would say, desperately need the Alliance’s righteous message of hope for their kind. P.R. doesn’t offer a solution, but Alliance member “White Man 1” of Tennessee weighed in right after her comments with “The only solution is the program of the National Alliance.” Amen, brother!

Alliance members and supporters are encouraged to visit and join

<http://whitebiocentrism.com> (WB) and participate — express ideas like P.R. and others, share feelings, and mentor new NA members and visitors who are new to the unique idea of White racial loyalty and to the philosophy and program of the National Alliance. We don’t allow our enemies a platform at WB, nor disruptors who want to argue with us, problems which plague other pro-White Internet forums. WB is another tool for Alliance-building, and a place where we’d like more participation.

Greetings, Chairman Williams: Enclosed are my monthly dues and a donation from our local members for our Alliance’s Legal Defense Fund or for another worthwhile purpose. As you know, we area NA members have been meeting monthly now since October of 2015. Some of our monthly gatherings were cancelled this Winter due to snow storms or family constraints, since some members have young children. But at our April meeting we had eight members in attendance plus two supporters. We are still a small group, but enthusiastic, motivated, and steadily growing! We are continually educating ourselves, and sharing that knowledge with one another and with others outside the organization. Our goal is to help move the Alliance and our people forward into the future.

We would like for our group of Alliance members to be considered and recognized as a proto-Local Unit of the National Alliance until we qualify for official Local Unit status. This will allow us to install a telephone message service, procure a Post Office box, etc., that will enhance further outreach in our region. With honor and respect, — R.M., representing New England NA

Commentary by Chairman William White Williams

Persistence and Resourcefulness

When I was appointed as National Alliance Chairman in October of 2014, our organization had lost 98% of the membership numbers it had enjoyed when Dr. Pierce died in 2002 — and every one of the Local Units that had been in place then.

With these catastrophic, seemingly insurmountable losses, along with the sale of Resistance Records by my predecessor in 2013, I and Kevin Strom saw an opportunity to rebuild the NA from the ground up, with practically a clean slate. In fact, when my predecessor Erich Gliebe declared in September of 2012 that the Alliance was no longer going to be a membership organization, I considered that totally unacceptable, and Kevin and I agreed that together we would launch our own National Alliance, a Piercian membership organization based entirely on our founder's Cosmotheist world view and the original 1993 National Alliance Membership Handbook that he and I had helped Dr. Pierce to write. Between us we had the experience of years of working closely with Dr. Pierce and knowing how he envisioned our Alliance going forward.

My experience was mostly in recruiting and organizing and Kevin's genius was more focused on building the Alliance's multimedia outreach, exactly what he has managed to do, almost out of thin air, and almost single-handedly, as our current Media Director. Dr. Pierce gave Kevin that same title — National Alliance Media Director — 26 years ago when he, and I, as National Alliance Membership Coordinator, were on staff with Dr. Pierce on the same debt-free 350+-acre property we have today, where we all lived and worked together back then.

I expected grief from our "hate watchdogs" at the Southern Poverty Law Center, but after paying off the considerable Alliance debts incurred by Chairman Gliebe, I did not anticipate the tens of thousands of dollars more we have been forced to spend, defending against two court-driven coup attempts by supposed "White nationalists": first by the NARRG crew, then the McLaughlin crew, with their multiple, collaborative civil lawsuits and bogus criminal charges. Those funds could have been so much better spent on building infrastructure and media. But spend that money we did — much of it my own savings, some the proceeds from a legal settlement I received, and most of it an inheritance from my mother. It was either keep paying or give up. The latter choice was not an option, so we dug in, found the funds, and persevered through the siege. We are still here and our adversaries are not.

This monthly internal BULLETIN is our 28th. You who received our first couple, combining the months of October, November, and December, 2014 in the first, and January and February, 2015 in the second, have reliably received your BULLETIN every month since. By my count Kevin Strom has produced and hosted 172 weekly American Dissident Voices radio broadcasts in as many weeks, with no repeats. That is phenomenal considering all else he does for us. The National Alliance is solvent; its taxes are paid, and many of its early rebuilding challenges are behind us. We have a great core of support now and big plans for taking on some achievable projects.

Although R.M. and our other New England members do not yet constitute a formal National Alliance Local Unit (an Alliance substructure described in our Handbook), they will likely become the Alliance's first official Local Unit since the last one under Erich Glibe's chairmanship disbanded five years ago. Our New Englanders' dedication is unquestioned and they will meet the strict requirements for Local Unit designation soon enough. Their request to open a post office box is approved, but simply as NENA (New England National Alliance) for now. Also the request to install a NENA voice mail number is approved. This must be coordinated with Media Director Strom as to what device will be used and what recorded message callers will hear. Since we have that proverbial clean slate — zero recorded message machines — we will design a new system and standardize devices for compatibility with a message recorded by the National Office. Telephone message services worked before for the Alliance and they will work again. This time around the Alliance contact numbers will be spread through social media. It's time.

It is so encouraging to see a young White man like D.S. in Oregon wanting to join the Alliance and dedicate his life to our cause. That our uncompromising radical message inspires a former alt-righter shows the potential we have for tapping into that community to find

"We have done so much with so little for so long, that we are now able to do anything with nothing."

plaque behind the Team House bar of Will Williams' Special Forces A-Camp, Southeast Asia, 1968-1969

other newly-awakened Whites, young and old, who want our "vital truths that the alt-right does not discuss."

We are in a war that is generational. It requires young warriors (guided by us old soldiers) who will persevere and persist when others would quit. During the past couple of years of struggle — enduring so much, with so little to work with, I've often been reminded of a plaque that hung behind the team house bar of my Special Forces A-Camp in Southeast Asia nearly 50 years ago. We in that remote outpost on the Vietnam-Cambodia border learned to be ultra-resourceful; to make do with what we had, not with what we wish we had. There was no quitting because conditions were horrible, or because little yellow people were trying their best to kill us; we had to persist, to endure.

The necessary work the National Alliance does is not yet physically dangerous. Our war is not now a shooting war, but it is a war nevertheless, against a determined enemy that wants us dead. We must build and be ready for the escalation that will surely come. Those who can endure hardship for years and keep fighting are most valued.
